

Piecemakers Quilt Guild of Southern Alameda County
2022 Quilt Show Boutique
Seller Form and Entry Rules

At the 2022 Quilt Show, handmade items created by Piecemakers members will be featured throughout the two-day event in our Boutique. You are invited to participate by making and entering items to be sold. This is an opportunity to earn some dollars for your handiwork or contribute much-appreciated funds for Guild activities.

Members choosing to donate items to be sold in support of Guild programming and activities:

- You may enter as many items as you like, but all things should be new, well made, and in excellent condition.
- Items will be priced and ticketed by Boutique committee members.
- Items may be given to Amy Gunnarson, Cynthia Kearney, or Ann Anderson at Guild Meetings or other times. All items are due by Tuesday, May 3, 2022 (May Guild Meeting). It is best to get the items as soon as possible for tagging and pricing, so please call when you are ready, so we can arrange to pick them up from you.

Sellers participating to earn money:

You may enter as many items as you like, but all things should be new, well made, and in excellent condition.

Note:

- You will price your items (with assistance by Amy Gunnarson if wanted).
- Piecemakers will retain 15% of the selling price of each item to offset costs.
- Sales tax on the selling price will be charged to buyers and forwarded to California.
- Members selling items for profit must volunteer at least two hours in the Guild Boutique. These hours are in addition to your regular quilt show volunteer commitment and allow us to provide the best boutique service possible.
- When the buyer pays for your articles, the item(s) will change hands. Piecemakers will send a check to the member who submitted the articles (s) a few days after the show's conclusion.
- Unsold item(s) can be picked up between 4:00 – 5:00 p.m. on Sunday (5/15/22) at the end of the quilt show. If you are not available, please designate an alternate, or you can pick up your sale item(s) at the next Guild meeting on June 7, 2022.
